

Evrım Kıray Bař

Evrım Kıray Bař was born in 1978. She graduated from Istanbul University Cerrahpařa Faculty of Medicine and subsequently Child Health and Diseases specialization at same university. After completing her pediatrics specialization she worked in private hospital between 2004 and 2008. She completed his subspecialty training at Istanbul řiřli Hamidiye Etfal Training and Research Hospital, Newborn Clinic in 2012.

She received the title of Associate Professor in the field of Neonatology on 18.11.2020. She has been working at řiřli Hamidiye Etfal Training and Research Hospital since 2015.

She has published many international and national scientific articles, authored book chapters and presented many oral/written presentations.

She co-founded the Children's Friends Association and currently member of board same association.